Frank, Greg, et al:

I just spoke with Staci Slaughter -what a wonderful park friend. She had phoned and emailed John Diaz at the Chron, asking him to be sure and talk to the park before editorializing negatively about a park issue. She said that John has always been very fair, as has Marshall Kilduff. John emailed her back saying he would be glad to talk with us. At Staci's suggestion, I just left him a voice message.

Greg and David, thank you very much for going to bat for the park on this issue. Your connection via Staci may help us head off a problem. All we want is the time to continue to listen and fashion the best possible plan; we can't afford all of the elected officials rushing to judgement on a plan that hasn't even been produced.

Onward on the High Road.

Greg,

Yes, thanks for your assistance on a topic "near and dear to your heart" This is a critical phase for the park, and we appreciate your assistance.
